CONTEMPT PETITION NO.351 OF 2004

The Judge, Family Court No.3,Pune..Petitioner.

V/s.

Smt.Smita Pusalkar. ..Respondent.

And

Mr. Aniruddha Pusalkar. ..Orig.plaintiff.

Mr.M.S.Mohite, for husband.

Mr.A.V.Anturkar for Respondent-wife.

CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR,J

DATE : JANUARY 25, 2006.

P.C. :

1. Not on board. Upon production taken on board.

2. The matter is produced to bring to my notice that this petition need not be proceeded further in view of the amicable settlement arrived at between the parties, as recorded in the consent terms filed before this court in some other proceedings being Cri. Rev. Application no.24 of 2004. Counsel for the husband accepts this position. Both the parties pray that the matter may not be precipitated further because the present reference emanates from the formal application made by the husband before the family court for initiating contempt action. However, in view of the subsequent settlement arrived at between the parties, in the interest of justice, as jointly prayed by the parties, this proceedings are dropped and show cause notice issued to the respondent is discharged on the understanding that the parties will abide by the terms of consent terms filed before this court. Ordered accordingly.
